

751—8.7(8D) Notice of appeal. Any authorized user affected by the decision regarding a scheduling conflict may appeal that decision to the commission by filing written notice of appeal thereof either by fax, hand delivery or by regular or overnight mail with the decision maker within five days after the authorized user receives a copy of the decision. The notice of appeal shall identify the decision in question and the authorized user making the appeal.